

TENDER NRCC INDUSTRY NEWSLETTERS 2022

The NRCC will periodically send out newsletters covering specific areas of interest, using the NRCC style and letterhead, to inform the NRCC community, as well as external companies in our database. For each category, the NRCC will send one newsletter per month.

The proposed sectors are:

Agriculture

Creative Industries

Cryptocurrency

Design

EU Funds
& State Grants

HR &
Recruitment

IT&C

Legal

Mobility

Sustainability

Tax / Accounting

Tourism

Real Estate

The content will be exclusively provided by an NRCC member with expertise in the field, for a period indicated by the NRCC. The content provider will be mentioned in the newsletter as the exclusive provider of the content. For example: NRCC FINANCE NEWS BY MAZARS ROMANIA. All content must be in the English language.

Basic qualification criteria for each organisation to apply:

- should be a member of the NRCC, with relevant expertise in the specific field.
- should have no outstanding amounts due to the NRCC.

The right to provide content for each newsletter shall be determined based on a competitive bidding process. Unless otherwise approved by the Board of Directors on a case-by-case basis, minimum bids shall be:

12
month
exclusivity period

1800 euro plus VAT,
for newsletters to be sent

- January 2022 – December 2022

06
month
exclusivity period

900 euro plus VAT,
for newsletters to be sent

- January 2022-June 2022,
- July 2022 – December 2022

Members can apply for both periods, regardless of its/her/his level of membership. Duo combinations between members are allowed, one bid shall be received containing both companies.

The bidding shall begin by email notice to all members, with a deadline of 30 November 2021 established for receipt of bids by email to info@nrcc.ro. Each member shall demonstrate in its bid that it/she/he meets the qualification criteria set forth above.

The NRCC shall review each bid on a confidential basis and the winner in each category shall be selected based on having fulfilled the qualification criteria and offered the highest price. In case of a tie, a second round of bidding will take place by email, but only with the members that/who submitted the highest bids. If the second-round results in another time, then the President of the Board of Directors of the NRCC (or another person as the Board might elect in the absence of the President) shall select the winning bid by writing their names on strips of paper and drawing the winning paper at random. All initial bidders will be informed of the results of each bidding round for their respective sectors.
